Musical score for Soprano (S.), Piano (P.), and Double Bass (D.) at measure 104. The score consists of three staves. The Soprano staff uses a soprano clef, the Piano staff uses a treble clef, and the Double Bass staff uses a bass clef. Measure 104 starts with a 2/4 time signature, followed by a 1/8, then a 4/4 section with dynamic f. The piano part includes dynamic markings ff and f, and a note with a bracket labeled "(without pedal)". The double bass part features sustained notes with various articulations like dots, crosses, and circles. Measures 105-106 show a continuation of the rhythmic patterns, with the piano part maintaining its dynamic levels and the double bass providing harmonic support.

Musical score for orchestra and piano, page 109, measures 1-16. The score includes parts for Soprano (S.), Piano (P.), and Double Bass (D.). The instrumentation changes frequently between measures, indicated by dynamic markings like pp, ff, sfp, mf, and mf. The score features complex rhythmic patterns and harmonic shifts between 3/2, 3/4, 16/16, and 2/4 time signatures.
